

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

SECTION 1. The powers of government are divided into three departments: Legislative, Executive, and Judicial.

SEC. 2. No person belonging to one department shall exercise power properly belonging to another, except in the cases expressly provided in this Constitution.

ARTICLE IV.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

SECTION 1. The legislative power is vested in a Senate and House of Representatives.

SEC. 2. The Senate shall consist of thirty-three members. Senate districts shall be arranged by the Legislature, and not less than two shall be formed of the territory known as the Upper Peninsula. They shall be numbered consecutively, and each district shall elect one Senator. At the first election under this Constitution, Senators in the odd numbered districts shall be chosen for two years, and in the even numbered districts for four years, and thereafter all Senators shall be elected for four years. No county shall be divided in the formation of Senate districts, unless such county shall be equitably entitled to more than one Senator.

SEC. 3. The House of Representatives shall consist of one hundred and ten members, to be apportioned among the several counties and districts, according to an equal ratio of population, as near as may be. Each county having a ratio of representation, and a fraction over equal to one-third of such ratio, shall be entitled to two Representatives, and above that number, one additional Representative for each additional ratio; but every organized county containing a population of not less than one-third of the ratio of representation, and every two or more contiguous organized counties containing a like population, shall be entitled to a Representative. Every unorganized county shall be attached to a Representative district. Representatives shall be chosen for two years and by single districts. In every county entitled to more than one Representative, the board of supervisors shall assemble at such time and place as may be provided by law, and divide the same into Representative districts equal to the number of Representatives to which such county is entitled by law, and shall cause to be filed in the offices of the Secretary of State and clerk of such county, a description of such Representative districts, specifying the number of each district, and the population thereof according to the last enumeration. Such division into Representative districts shall remain unaltered until the return of another enumeration, unless otherwise provided by law.

SEC. 4. The Legislature, after each enumeration of inhabitants under the authority of this State, and by the authority of the United States, shall rearrange the Senate districts, and apportion anew the Representatives among the counties and districts according to the number of inhabitants. But no rearrangement of Senate districts shall vacate the seat of any Senator. Each apportionment shall remain unaltered until the return of another enumeration. No ward or township shall be divided in the formation of a Senatorial or Representative district. Boundaries of municipalities may be changed by law, but if thereby any territory embraced within a Senatorial or Representative district shall be detached therefrom, elections shall be held for Senator or Representative, as the case may be, in the territory so detached, until the return of another enumeration and apportionment, the same as though such change in boundaries had not been made. No law heretofore enacted making a change in the boundaries of any municipality shall be held void for the reason that the same altered a Senatorial or Representative district, and all such laws are hereby declared to be valid and confirmed.

SEC. 5. Every Senator and Representative shall be a citizen of the United States, and a qualified elector of the district he represents. A removal from his district shall be deemed a vacation of his office. Senators and Representatives elected to fill vacancies shall hold their office for the residue of the unexpired term.

SEC. 6. No person holding any elective State office, and no person holding the office of probate judge, county clerk, register of deeds, county treasurer, sheriff, county superintendent of schools, prosecuting attorney, county auditor, or any office to which he was appointed by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall be allowed to take or hold a seat in either House of the Legislature.

SEC. 7. Senators and Representatives shall in all cases, except treason, felony, or breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during sessions of the Legislature. They shall not be subject to any civil process during any session nor for fifteen days next before the commencement and after the termination thereof. They shall not be questioned in any other place for any speech in either House.

SEC. 8. A majority of each House shall constitute a quorum to do business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day and compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner and under such penalties as each House may prescribe.

SEC. 9. Each House, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, shall choose its own officers, determine the rules of its proceedings, and judge of the qualifications, election and return of its members, and may, with the concurrence of two-thirds of all the members elected, expel a member. The reasons for such expulsion shall be entered upon the journal, with the names of the members voting on the question. No member shall be expelled a second time for the same cause.

SEC. 10. Each House shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and publish the same, except such parts as may require secrecy. The yeas and nays of the members of either House on any question shall be taken at the request of one-fifth of the members elected. Any member of either House may dissent from and protest against any act, proceeding or resolution which he may deem injurious to any person or the public, and have the reason of his dissent entered on the journal.

SEC. 11. In all elections by either House, or in joint convention, the votes shall be given viva voce. All votes on nominations to the Senate shall be taken by yeas and nays, and published with the journal of its proceedings.

SEC. 12. The doors of each House shall be open, unless the public welfare requires secrecy. Neither House shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than where the Legislature may then be in session.

SEC. 13. Bills may originate in either House, but no bill or new subject of legislation shall be introduced after the expiration of the first fifty days of the session, except on recommendation of the Governor by special message. At extra sessions, legislation shall be confined to the subjects expressly named in the Governor's proclamation, or submitted by special message.

SEC. 14. Every bill and joint resolution passed by the Legislature, and every concurrent resolution appropriating money or property, shall be presented to the Governor, and if he approve, he shall sign it; but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to the House in which it originated, which shall enter the objections at large upon its journal, and reconsider it. On such reconsideration, if two-thirds of the members elected agree to pass such bill or resolution, it shall be sent, with the objections, to the other House, by which it shall be reconsidered. If approved by two-thirds of the members elected to that House, it shall become operative. In such case the vote of both Houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting for and against it shall be entered on the journals of each House respectively. If any bill or resolution be not returned by the Governor within ten days (Sunday excepted) after it has been presented to him, the same shall become operative in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the Legislature, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall not become operative. The Governor may approve, sign and file in the office of the Secretary of State, within five days after the adjournment of the Legislature, any act passed during the last five days of the session, and the same shall become operative.

SEC. 15. The compensation of members of the Legislature shall be four dollars a day for actual attendance, and when absent on account of sickness. They shall be entitled to ten cents, and no more, for every mile actually traveled going to and returning from the place of meeting, on the usually traveled route; and for stationery and newspapers not exceeding five dollars for each member during any session. Each member shall be entitled to one copy of the laws, journals, and documents of the Legislature of which he was a member; but shall not receive, at the expense of the State, books, newspapers, or other perquisites of office not expressly authorized by this Constitution.

SEC. 16. The President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives shall be entitled to the same per diem compensation and mileage as members of the Legislature, and no more.

SEC. 17. No person elected a member of the Legislature shall receive any civil appointment other than that of notary public, from the Governor, the Governor and Senate, from the Legislature, or any other State authority, or be eligible to any office which shall have been created or the emoluments of which shall have been increased by the Legislature of which he is a member, until the expiration of the term for which he is elected. All such appointments and all votes given for any person so elected, for any such office or appointment, shall be void. No member of the Legislature shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract with the State, or any municipal corporation authorized by any law passed during the time for which he is elected, until one year after the expiration of his legislative term.

SEC. 18. Every bill and joint resolution, and every concurrent resolution appropriating money or property, shall be read three times in each House before the final passage thereof. No bill, nor any such resolution, shall become a law without the concurrence of a majority of all the members elected to each House, to be determined by yeas and nays, which shall be taken separately, on each bill or resolution, and entered on the journal.

SEC. 19. No law shall embrace more than one subject, which shall be expressed in its title. No law shall be revised, altered or amended, by reference to its title only, but the act revised, and the section or sections of the act altered or amended, shall be re-enacted and published at length. No public act shall take effect or be in force until the expiration of ninety days from the end of the session at which the same is passed, unless the Legislature shall otherwise direct, by a two-thirds vote of the members elected to each House, such vote to be taken by yeas and nays if demanded by any member.

SEC. 20. The Legislature shall not grant or authorize extra compensation to any public officer, agent or contractor, after the service has been rendered or the contract entered into.

The Legislature shall prescribe by law the manner in which the State printing shall be executed, and the accounts rendered therefor, and shall prohibit all charges for constructive labor. It shall not rescind or alter such contract, nor release the person or persons taking the same, or his or their sureties, from the performance of any of the conditions of the contract. No member of the Legislature or officer of the State shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any such contract, or any contract with the State.

There has been received during the year from the Treasurer of the United States $28,723 20 as five per cent of the proceeds of cash sales of Government lands lying within this State, which amount has been paid to Francis B. Gilbert, agent and trustee of William Beard and others, in compliance with the provisions of Joint Resolution No. 12, Laws of 1869. This makes a total aggregate of $68,839 83 paid on this claim, while there is still due about $22,000 00.

The total amount of specific taxes, including $18,655 88 of mining taxes from the Upper Peninsula, received during the year, was $347,595 79, an amount sufficient to pay the interest on the Trust Funds and on the bonded debt of the State, leaving a balance of $29,646 78 to be credited to the Sinking Fund. There is still about $250,000 00 railroad taxes unpaid which are bearing 7 per cent interest.

There is now $79,719 04 to the credit of the Canal Fund, an amount which, if not diminished by necessary improvements to the canal during the coming winter, is more than sufficient to pay the outstanding bonds of the fund.

In February last Internal Improvement Warrant No. 5329 for $20 00, dated May 3d, 1842, was presented and paid, together with $42 79 interest, making a total payment of $62 79. There is still outstanding of this class of warrants $5,792 37, bearing date mostly from 1845 to 1850, which would make their amount now, including interest, about $15,000 00.

During the year there was received from the Governor, for the sale of ordnance stores under Joint Resolution No. 4, Laws of 1871, $583 50, and from the Quartermaster General, for the rent of military offices in Detroit, $700 00, which amounts have been credited to the Military Fund. The State tax of $27,976 05 has also been credited, making the total credits for the year $29,259 55.

The payments from the fund were as follows: To the Treasurer of the Military Board, under the provisions of Act No. 35, Laws of 1869, for the benefit of the Soldiers' Aid Fund, $500 00; to the Quartermaster General, on estimates of the Military Board, approved by the Governor, $4,000 00; for Roll of Honor, under Joint Resolution No. 1, Laws of 1873, $1,339 50; for salaries of military officers, $1,675 03. Total payments for the year, $8,514 53. The balance now standing to the credit of the fund is $85,168 28, an increase for the year of $20,745 02.

The transactions in Swamp Land Scrip for the year were as follows:

During the year we have surrendered to the various townships, on the written order of their respective boards, verified under seal by their county clerks, Railroad Aid Bonds to the amount of $1,065,842 50. On page 7 we give a detailed list of those still remaining in the office, amounting to $985,733 30.

The Bonded debt of the State has been reduced during the year $510,000 00, including $140,000 00 not due till 1878, 1879, and 1883. All bonds that could be reached at par and accrued interest have been taken.
